

Kim B. Miller

Kim is a college graduate with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration from Rochester Institute of Technology. She was born in Brooklyn, NY. Her family later moved to Long Island, NY. She resided in New York for 34 years and later moved to Virginia.

Her first marriage ended in a divorce and she is now remarried to her high school sweetheart. She has 2 teenagers (1 girl and 1 boy) from her previous marriage, along with her extended family.

She has been writing for several years. She has a passion for writing nonfiction, real life issues, which comes through in this book and in the future work that she has already started. She also writes thought provoking poetry.

She has a fun, spirited, sense of humor that is evident in her writing. She speaks and writes with clarity, this makes her focus very apparent.

She is also known to be "to the point". Long, incoherent explanations are not her strong point; rather she is a consistent person that makes her view easily comprehensible.

She loves telling jokes, traveling, writing, snorkeling and spending time with her family.

Kim believes that through God all things are possible.
